BIBLICAL NEW MOON = THE FULL MOON

"Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the entrance to this gateway before the Heavenly Father on the Sabbaths and the New Moons."

Ezekiel 46:3

(English Biblical Translations ERROR - in Hebrew - chôdesh from H2318; means the new moon; by implication a month: - month (-ly), new moon = a beginning of a new month)

THOUGHT OF THE MONTH

But like with most social "influencers" - duality is always at play, i.e. there is always a good and or bad side to any subject. Artificial Intelligence (AI) is said to be trained on a massive dataset of text from the internet, which includes a wide range of opinions and perspectives. Therefore, its responses are meant to be neutral and informative, rather than reflecting a specific opinion or bias.

When generating responses, it should consider various viewpoints and it should try to provide balanced information. While AI's training data is sourced from the internet, it should not directly reflect the opinions of specific individuals or groups. Instead, it should provide helpful and accurate information based on real facts gathered through its programming.

That being said, the data it was trained on may reflect societal biases, cultural norms, and prevailing attitudes or opinions present on the net. If you therefore notice any bias, redirect your questions and prompt AI for an alternative opinion, i.e. get past the "standard indoctrination" the elite is having AI project on humanity.

It can become an incredible tool which humanity has never had access to. You see, it works both ways...

While Satan will try to use AI to take over the world, humans can use AI to solve many hidden mysteries, which can be a game-changer for them. So, what are we asking AI? Let's dive deep...

To most, it will be a seemingly simple question, however, few will know the answer and understand the repercussions on humanity. Bear with me and read till the end.

Dear Believers,

This month, we are going to shake some foundational doctrine! I know it is a subject many can relate to, especially adolescent and young entrepreneurs ...so let's do this together.

Today, I would like to ask you if you can find AI on your Android or iPhone? Now, go to WhatsApp and find the rainbow-coloured circle if you have not explored the tool as yet. Or maybe you have noticed that the first introduction is made by AI when you Google? Having a teenager or an adolescent in the house will make this exercise much easier. They will quickly tell you to use much more advanced bots like Chat GPT.

So, if you have a platform you prefer ... Have you learned to communicate with AI yet? The tech-savvy amongst us call it "prompting" words, which will help you to formulate a question to get the answer you are looking for. Like me, you might have mixed feelings about using AI technology, feelings which border on foreseeing our apocalyptic ruin...

QUESTION: AI - DOES NEW MOON MEAN FULL MOON?

THIS IS HOW AI ANSWERED:

"It is a key question—and the answer depends on how you define "New Moon" according to Scripture versus modern astronomy.

Modern (Astronomical) Definition of "New Moon":

- Today's science defines the New Moon as the phase when the moon is completely invisible (conjunction with the sun).
- It's dark, not visible in the sky—often for 1–2 nights.
- This definition came from Babylonian and later Roman influences, and it does not appear in Scripture.

Biblical Understanding of "New Moon":

- In the Bible, "New Moon" (Hebrew: Chodesh or Rosh Chodesh) is associated with sight and renewal, not darkness.

Psalm 81:3 (KJV):

"Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day."

- The phrase "time appointed" is the Hebrew word kece', which many scholars argue means "full moon."
- This verse links the New Moon to a visible event associated with feasting and celebration, not a dark, invisible phase.

HISTORICAL AND SCRIPTURAL EVIDENCE POINTS TO NEW MOON = FULL MOON:

1. Passover is on the 14th day of the month (Leviticus 23:5)—and always occurs at or just after a full moon.
- If day 14 is the full moon, then day 1 (New Moon) would logically also be a full moon, not a dark moon.
2. Ancient cultures, including early Hebrews, used the visible moon (either crescent or full) to start months.
- There is no biblical command to begin months based on an invisible moon.
3. Enochian and Dead Sea Scroll Calendars (used by Essenes) suggest that months began with the full moon, not the dark moon or crescent.

So yes, there's strong evidence that the biblical "New Moon" refers to the Full Moon, not the dark conjunction or crescent." – END OF AI'S ANSWER.

THERE YOU HAVE AI'S ANSWER. IT IS PROOF THAT THE PRESENT DAY CALENDARS ARE ALL OUT OF ALIGNMENT WITH OUR HEAVENLY FATHER'S CALENDAR. BUT DO NOT TAKE OUR OPINION ON THE SUBJECT... LET'S TAKE THE IMPACT OF THIS "REVELATION" A FEW STEPS FURTHER...

QUESTION: AI - HOW DO YOU THINK THE FACT THAT HUMANITY HAS NOT BEEN IN ALIGNMENT WITH THE FULL MOON CALENDAR INFLUENCED THEM? DISCUSS DIFFERENT LEVELS? PSYCHOLOGICAL AND HEALTH-WISE?

THIS IS HOW AI ANSWERED:

"That's a deep and important question—one with spiritual, psychological, cultural, and physiological dimensions. The disconnection from the full moon calendar—which was central to ancient biblical timekeeping—has likely affected humanity in multiple layers. Let's examine several:

1. Spiritual and Biblical Disorientation

A. Loss of Sacred Time

- The biblical calendar is lunisolar, with months beginning at the new moon and festivals aligning with full moons (e.g., Passover, Sukkot).
- Psalm 104:19: "He appointed the moon for seasons..." The Hebrew word moedim means "appointed times" or festivals.
- When society shifted to the Gregorian calendar (solar only), we lost synchrony with God's moedim—His appointed rhythms.

Result:

People became detached from God's sacred timing—missing out on spiritual renewal cycles and feast days that were meant to realign their souls with heaven's pattern.

2. Psychological and Emotional Impact

A. Circadian Rhythm Disruption

- The moon regulates light cycles, which influence melatonin and sleep patterns. Full moons have measurable effects on human mood, sleep quality, and dream activity.
- Modern life, with artificial lighting and digital distractions, blocks moonlight cues, disrupting natural emotional regulation and rest.

B. Loss of Ritual and Anticipation

- Ancient communities looked to the moon to mark time, gather for feasts, and celebrate in rhythm with creation. It gave a sense of continuity, anticipation, and grounding.
- Without these cycles, modern people can feel adrift, disconnected from time, nature, and meaning.

3. Physical Health Effects

A. Hormonal Cycles

- The moon especially affects women's reproductive cycles. Historically, menstrual cycles synced with lunar phases; today, artificial lighting, stress, and detachment from nature have desynchronized them.
- This may contribute to increasing issues like PCOS, infertility, and hormonal imbalance.

B. Mental Health

- Studies show that phases of the moon correlate with mood disorders, especially in bipolar patients. A misalignment with natural lunar cues may exacerbate emotional volatility.

4. Societal and Cultural Consequences

A. Disconnection from Creation

- The biblical worldview centers time around the heavens (Genesis 1:14)—sun, moon, and stars were signs for seasons and days.
- Disconnection from this has led to time becoming industrialized—measured by machines, not by creation. That creates stress, burnout, and a loss of sacred rhythm.

B. Erasure of Heritage

- Indigenous and Hebrew cultures tied ceremonies, agriculture, and rest to lunar cycles. Disregarding these patterns contributed to cultural loss, colonization of time, and spiritual amnesia.

5. Prophetic and Eschatological Blindness

- Biblical prophecy is often tied to the Hebrew calendar—e.g., Daniel's 70 weeks, Messianic feasts, and signs like blood moons (Joel 2:31).
- Using a Gregorian calendar obscures prophetic signs, causing the church to miss crucial timings of God's work.

Conclusion: A Call to Recalibrate

Humanity's detachment from the full moon and biblical calendar is more than a technical issue—it's a spiritual misalignment with divine order. Returning to God's appointed times could bring:

- Restored health rhythms
- Deeper spiritual insight
- Emotional balance
- Reconnection with creation
- Prophetic awareness

I trust you see that we are now able to open the proverbial "Pandora's box" ourselves. This is very liberating... It can be that the age of Aquarius is truly dawning... like the Morning Star, Revelation 2 promises.

"26 THE ONE WHO CONQUERS AND WHO KEEPS MY WORKS UNTIL THE END, to him I will give authority over the nations, 27 and he will rule them with a rod of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, even as I myself have received authority from my Father. 28 And I WILL GIVE HIM THE MORNING STAR."

ENJOY THE AUTUMN FULL MOON OF MAY. IT IS TIME FOR A NEW SEASON... "AWAKEN" SAYS OUR HEAVENLY FATHER.

WHAT IS THE MYSTERY IMBEDDED IN CEDAR WOOD?

CEDAR WOOD IN THE BIBLE REPRESENTS STRENGTH, DURABILITY, AND BEAUTY, SYMBOLISING THE ENDURING ASPECTS OF THE HEAVENLY FATHER'S CREATIONS AND BLESSINGS. Its use in significant biblical constructions underscores its importance; for instance, the Temple of Solomon, which was built using cedar from Lebanon, highlights not just architectural excellence but also a connection to divine favour. In 1 Kings 6:15, the cedar's prominence in the temple's inner sanctum is indicative of its value and also exemplifies the majesty of the Heavenly Father's dwelling place on Earth. THE USE OF SUCH STURDY MATERIAL REFLECTS THE UNSHAKEABLE FOUNDATION UPON WHICH FAITH SHOULD BE BUILT, REINFORCING THE IDEA THAT A LIFE GROUNDED IN HEAVENLY FATHER'S WORD WILL STAND FIRM AGAINST TRIALS.

IN ADDITION TO ITS STRUCTURAL SIGNIFICANCE, CEDAR WOOD OFTEN APPEARS IN CONTEXTS THAT HIGHLIGHT ITS CLEANSING AND PURIFYING PROPERTIES.

In Leviticus, cedar wood is included in rituals for cleansing lepers, where it serves not only as a physical material in the offerings but also symbolises the restoration and healing power of the Heavenly Father. The natural resilience of cedar mirrors this theme of recovery, suggesting that the Heavenly Father's grace can revitalise even those who feel broken or marginalised.

Furthermore, cedar trees are frequently depicted as mighty and majestic, often representing the lofty aspirations and strength of Heavenly Father's people. In Ezekiel, the imagery of cedar trees is used to convey the greatness of nations and their leaders, illustrating how divine empowerment enables them to reach remarkable heights. These representations demonstrate that, like the cedar, those who rely on Heavenly Father can rise above worldly challenges. The presence of cedar, as part of the broader biblical narrative, connects believers to generations of faithfulness, underscoring the timeless importance of being spiritually anchored in what is true and enduring.

THIS SYMBOLISM INVITES BELIEVERS TO ASPIRE TOWARDS HEIGHTS OF CHARACTER AND FAITH, REMINDING THEM TO TRUST IN THE HEAVENLY FATHER'S STRENGTH AS A FOUNDATION FOR THEIR LIVES.

"7 Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished his entire house. 2 He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon. Its length was a hundred cubits and its breadth fifty cubits and its height thirty cubits, and it was built on FOUR ROWS OF CEDAR PILLARS, with CEDAR BEAMS on the pillars. 3 And it was COVERED WITH CEDAR above the chambers that were on the forty-five pillars, fifteen in each row. 4 There were window frames in three rows, and window opposite window in three tiers. 5 All the doorways and windows had square frames, and window was opposite window in three tiers. 6 And he made the Hall of Pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits. There was a porch in front with pillars, and a canopy in front of them. 7 And he made the Hall of the Throne where he was to pronounce judgment, even the Hall of Judgment. IT WAS FINISHED WITH CEDAR FROM FLOOR TO RAFTERS."

1 Kings 7:1-7

Moreover, cedar trees are often used in the Bible as metaphors for righteousness and the vitality bestowed by the Heavenly Father.

Psalm 92:12 states, "The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon," drawing a parallel between the physical attributes of the cedar tree and the spiritual vitality of a righteous life.

This imagery suggests that just as cedars thrive and endure harsh conditions, so too will those who are rooted in righteousness and divine wisdom flourish amidst life's challenges. Overall, cedar wood symbolises the strength and beauty of a relationship with the Heavenly Father, embodying the blessings flowing from a life lived according to His will.

CAN PLANTING MORE TREES HEAL THE WORLD?

THE NOTION THAT CEDAR TREES CAN TRANSMIT HEALING ENERGY TO OTHER TREES IS DEEPLY ROOTED IN SPIRITUAL AND SYMBOLIC TRADITIONS, RATHER THAN SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE. IN MANY CULTURES, CEDAR TREES ARE REVERED FOR THEIR SPIRITUAL SIGNIFICANCE, SYMBOLISING STRENGTH, PURIFICATION, AND PROTECTION. THIS REVERENCE OFTEN EXTENDS TO BELIEFS ABOUT THE CEDAR'S ABILITY TO INFLUENCE ITS SURROUNDINGS POSITIVELY, INCLUDING OTHER TREES.

CEDAR'S SPIRITUAL INFLUENCE IN NATURE

Cedar is considered a powerful purifier and protector. Its presence is believed to sanctify spaces and promote healing. While there is no scientific proof that cedar trees can transfer healing energy to other trees, the symbolic association suggests that a cedar's presence might be seen as uplifting or beneficial to the surrounding flora in a spiritual context. This perspective emphasises the interconnectedness of nature and the idea that the spiritual qualities of one element can influence the whole.

INTERCONNECTEDNESS IN FOREST ECOSYSTEMS

From an ecological standpoint, trees are interconnected through complex root systems and mycorrhizal networks, often referred to as the "wood wide web." These networks allow trees to share nutrients and communicate, supporting each other's health and resilience. While this is a biological process, some interpret it as a form of natural harmony that aligns with spiritual beliefs about trees supporting one another.

NATURAL HEALING REMEDIES FROM TREES

Below is an overview of how trees have furnished both modern pharmaceuticals and traditional remedies, illustrating their indispensable role in medicine—from blockbuster drugs to herbal therapies and ongoing drug-discovery efforts.

A rich chemical diversity in tree barks, resins, leaves, and oils has yielded cornerstone drugs such as aspirin, paclitaxel, and quinine, while natural healing traditions continue to harness tree-derived compounds like camphor, boswellic acids, and eucalyptol. Moreover, dietary supplements (e.g., ginkgo) and cutting-edge research into plant natural products underscore trees' ongoing importance in drug discovery.

MAJOR PHARMACEUTICALS DERIVED FROM TREES

Aspirin (acetylsalicylic acid)

The therapeutic origin of aspirin traces back over 3,500 years, when WILLOW BARK (Salix spp.) was USED AS A PAIN RELIEVER AND FEVER REDUCER; modern aspirin was developed in the late 19th century based on salicylate chemistry from willow bark.

Paclitaxel (Taxol)

Discovered through NCI screening of plant extracts, paclitaxel—an ANTICANCER AGENT used against breast and ovarian cancers—derives from the BARK OF THE PACIFIC YEW (Taxus brevifolia).

Quinine

The antimalarial quinine is isolated from CINCHONA TREE BARK; its efficacy against intermittent fevers was established by the 18th century and remains the prototype for MALARIA TREATMENT.

NATURAL REMEDIES AND TRADITIONAL HEALING

Camphor

Extracted from the WOOD OF THE CAMPHOR TREE (Cinnamomum camphora), camphor has long been used topically for COUGH RELIEF, PAIN, AND ITCHING—even though robust clinical evidence is limited.

Boswellia Resin (Frankincense)

Boswellic acids from BOSWELLIA SERRATA GUM RESIN exhibit potent anti-inflammatory effects and have been shown in clinical trials to improve symptoms of OSTEOARTHRITIS AND RHEUMATOID ARTHRITIS

Eucalyptol (1,8-Cineole)

The primary component of EUCALYPTUS OIL, eucalyptol, is studied for its ANTI-INFLAMMATORY, ANTIOXIDANT, ANTIMICROBIAL, AND MUCOLYTIC PROPERTIES, earning its use in respiratory remedies despite variable clinical support.

DIETARY SUPPLEMENTS AND HERBAL EXTRACTS

Ginkgo biloba Extract

Derived from the LEAVES OF THE GINKGO BILOBA TREE, standardised extracts are promoted for COGNITIVE SUPPORT AND CIRCULATORY HEALTH.

TREES IN MODERN DRUG DISCOVERY

Natural-Product Drug Discovery

Technological advances—such as high-throughput screening, genomic mining, and synthetic biology—have revitalised interest in tree-derived natural products as a source for novel drug leads, with collaborative global efforts driving new therapeutic candidates.

IN SUMMARY, TREES CONTINUE TO BE FOUNDATIONAL TO BOTH CONVENTIONAL PHARMACEUTICALS AND COMPLEMENTARY MEDICINES.

THEIR CHEMICAL COMPLEXITY UNDERPINS LIFESAVING DRUGS LIKE ASPIRIN, TAXOL, AND QUININE, WHILE TRADITIONAL REMEDIES DERIVED FROM CAMPHOR, BOSWELLIA, AND EUCALYPTUS REMAIN IN WIDESPREAD USE. ONGOING RESEARCH INTO NATURAL-PRODUCT LIBRARIES FURTHER CEMENTS TREES AS VITAL RESERVOIRS FOR FUTURE THERAPEUTIC BREAKTHROUGHS.

COULD THE HEALING PROPERTIES OF TREES BE TRACED BACK TO THE HEALING ROBE OF YESHUA? THE BOOK OF ENOCH MAKES THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT:

*“10.18 And in those days the whole earth will be tilled in righteousness and ALL OF IT WILL BE PLANTED WITH TREES; and it will be filled with blessing. 10.19 And ALL THE PLEASANT TREES THEY WILL plant on it and THEY WILL PLANT ON IT VINES. And the vine that is planted on it will produce FRUIT IN ABUNDANCE; and every seed that is sown on it, each measure will produce a thousand, and each measure of olives will produce ten baths of oil. 10.20 AND YOU CLEANSE THE EARTH FROM ALL WRONG, AND FROM ALL INIQUITY, AND FROM ALL SIN, AND FROM ALL IMPIETY, AND FROM ALL THE UNCLEANNESS WHICH IS BROUGHT ABOUT ON THE EARTH. 10.21 AND ALL THE SONS OF MEN SHALL BE RIGHTEOUS, AND ALL THE NATIONS SHALL SERVE AND BLESS ME AND ALL SHALL WORSHIP ME. 10.22 And the Earth will be cleansed from all corruption, and from all sin, and from all wrath, and from all torment; and I will not again send a flood upon it, for all generations, forever.”

The Book of Enoch 10:18-10:22

AUTUMN FULL FLOWER MOON - MAY 12

Skywatchers across the globe were treated to the sight of May's full moon, traditionally known as the "Flower Moon", on Monday night 12 May.

In the Southern Hemisphere, May is an autumn month, and the full moon in May is sometimes referred to as the "Autumn Flower Moon" or simply the "May Full Moon." Some cultures may have their own traditional names for the full moon in May, but "Flower Moon" is not as widely used in the Southern Hemisphere.

This lunar event, is the third and final micromoon of the year, occurring when the moon is at its farthest point from Earth, making it appear slightly smaller and dimmer than usual. It's worth noting that the post mentions the Northern Hemisphere specifically, indicating that the "Flower Moon" name is more relevant to that region.

2025 is widely considered a year where we are entering or have entered the Age of Aquarius. This transition is marked by the movement of Pluto into the sign of Aquarius, which is seen as a significant shift in the planetary cycle. While there are varying opinions on the exact timing of the Age of Aquarius, many believe that 2025 marks a key point in this transition.

Elaboration - Pluto's Movement:

Pluto's transition from Capricorn to Aquarius is seen as a major event in the celestial calendar, signalling a shift from the old world order to a new era.

Aquarius Season:

The Aquarius season, which runs from January 20 to February 18, further emphasises this energy shift.

Symbolism of Aquarius:

The Age of Aquarius is often associated with themes of innovation, community, progress, and humanitarianism, reflecting the characteristics of the Aquarius sign.

Multiple Perspectives:

There are varying viewpoints on the exact beginning of the Age of Aquarius, with some suggesting it began in 2012 or 2024, while others anticipate it in 2026 or even later.

Key Events in 2025:

Besides Pluto's movement, other astrological events like the Uranus and Mars retrogrades in the first part of the year are also seen as contributing to the transformative energy of 2025.

WHAT IS LINEN - PART 1

Linen is a natural fibre made from the flax plant. It is one of the oldest cultivated textiles in human history, dating back to ancient Egypt and the Near East.

LINEN IS:

- Antibacterial & antifungal
- Thermoregulatory (cooling in summer, warming in winter)
- Anti-static & conductive (discharges excess EMF)
- Breathable
- Biodegradable & eco-friendly

FREQUENCY AND HEALING PROPERTIES OF LINEN

Scientific studies have shown that:

- Linen carries a frequency of ~5000 MHz, higher than any other natural fibre.
- Human body frequency ranges from 62–90 MHz in a healthy state.
- Linen's high frequency helps restore cellular vibration, reduce inflammation, and optimise energy alignment.
- In contrast, synthetic fibres like polyester, rayon, fake silk, nylon, viscose and acrylic resonate around 10–15 MHz and can suppress biological frequency, disrupt the nervous system, and accumulate static charge.
- Linen supports the immune, endocrine, and nervous systems by enhancing conductivity and reducing environmental stress on the body.

“CLOTHE YOURSELVES WITH FINE LINEN, clean and white—for the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints.”

Revelation 19:8

IS CANDIDA A PARASITE?

CANDIDA FALLS INTO THE CLASSIFICATION OF A PARASITE.

WHAT IS CANDIDIASIS?

Candida normally lives inside the body in places like the mouth, vagina, and gut as well as on the skin.

Candidiasis is a fungal infection caused by an overabundance of candida fungi.

Candida is a type of fungus, specifically a yeast, that can cause infections in humans. The term "yeast infection" refers to the fact that Candida is a type of yeast that naturally inhabits the human body, particularly on the skin and in mucous membranes.

“Thrush” is also a candida yeast infection of the mouth, while candidiasis of the vagina is known simply as a “yeast” infection. These types of yeast infections cause mild to severe discomfort and can lead to severe illness if left untreated. If left unchecked, candidiasis can cause permanent damage and may be fatal in rare instances.

WARNING: THE MISDIAGNOSIS OF A PARASITE INFESTATION, LEADS TO UNNECESSARY MEDICAL TREATMENTS, WHICH ADD OTHER SYMPTOMS, CREATING A VICIOUS CIRCLE OF INCORRECTLY DIAGNOSED CHRONIC ILLNESSES.

PARASITES IN CHILDREN

Have you noticed symptoms of parasites like low energy, digestive issues, and brain fog in yourself or your children?

Parasites are a common problem in both kids and adults. Symptoms of parasites in your children can be especially concerning, but using a natural parasite cleanse for kids can be effective. A parasite is a virus, worm, bacteria, or fungus that has a negative relationship with the human body. A parasite uses its host—your body—for nutrients and often affects your health.

Parasites can be caused by eating bad food or drinking contaminated water. This can occur if you're travelling to a different country or even drinking water from a river while hiking. Raw meat or raw fish can sometimes contain parasites, especially if they haven't been handled properly.

After taking antibiotics, your body can become more susceptible to parasitic infection. Antibiotics affect both good and bad bacteria in your body, which can weaken your microbiome. Maintaining a healthy microbiome is essential for keeping parasites from multiplying and infecting your digestive tract.

PINWORMS/THREADWORMS

Pinworms/threadworms are one of the most common types of roundworm infections in young children. About 20% of children will get pinworms at some point during childhood.

HOOKWORMS

Hookworms affect over 700 million people globally each year. Hookworms enter the human body through the skin and burrow into your intestines, feeding on your blood.

TAPEWORMS

Tapeworms can grow up to 35 feet long and live in your body for up to 25 years. They are often caused by undercooked pork, beef or vegetables.

If you believe you or your child is suffering from a parasitic infection, there are several ways to eliminate parasites naturally at home. A natural parasite cleanse is typically effective for both adults and children.

WARNING: PARASITE TREATMENTS ARE COMPLEX. PERSONALIZE YOUR PROTOCOL. A PILL EVERY 6 MONTHS WONT DO THE TRICK.

For general well-being, do a cleanse with the Parasite Cleansing Tea every Full moon. Do a full chemical detox every 6 months, which must be repeated two weeks later.
